Owingsville Outlook.

D & RSTILL, Publisher

OWINGSVILLE, : : KENTUCKY

PIES

When I was but a little maid
Of years not more than five.
I made mud pies beneath the trees,
The happiest child alive.
I molded them with fondest care.
I shaped them one by one.
Then crimped the edges prettily.
And baked them in the sun.

Since then a many years have flown And still I'm making pies, Although a difference I own In methods and supplies, And husband now, and children all,

Look with reproach at me, If thrice upon the festal board Each day no ples they see Ah, me, why was my childish play Not nipped while in the bud! Why did I try my prentice hand Upon those pies of mud! For I have pow so crusty grown,

Tet none do realize

That I'm a martyr to the cause Anna E. Treat, in Good Housekeeping.

PART III. CHAPTER XV .- CONTINUED.

All this time he had been feeling the stuff of my jacket, smoothing my hands, tooking at my boots, and generally, in the intervals of his speech, showing a shildish pleasure in the presence of a fellow creature. But at my last words he perked up into a kind of startled siv-

"If you ever get aboard again, says you?" he repeated. "Why, now, who's to hinder you?"

"Not you, I know," was my reply. "And right you was," he cried. you what do you call yourself, mate?"

"Jim." I told him. "Jim, Jim," says he, quite pleased, ap-"Well, now, Jim, I've lived that rough as you'd be ashamed to a Now, for instance, you wouldn't think I had a pious motherto look at me?" he asked "Why, no, not in particular," I an-

"Ab, well," said he, "but I had-re markably pious. And I was a civil, pious boy, and could rattle off my catechism that fast, as you couldn't tell one word from another. And here's what it come to, Jim, and it begun with chuck-farthen on the blessed gravestones! That's what it begun with, but it went further'n that; and so my other told me, and predicked the whole, she did, the pious woman. But It were Providence that put me here. I've thought it all out in this here lone ly island, and I'm back on piety. You can't catch me tasting rum so much; but just a thimbleful for luck, of course, the first chance I have. I'm and I'll be good, and I see the way to. d. Jim-" looking all around him, and lowering his voice to a whisper-

"I'm rich." I now felt sure that the poor fellow had gone crazy in his solitude, and I suppose I must have shown the feeling NARRATIVE CONTINUED BY THE in my face, for he repeated the DOCTOR - HOW THE SHIP WAS ABANDONED.

"Rich! rich! I says. And I'll tell you what; I'll make a man of you, Jim.

And at this there came suddenly a lowring shadow over his face, and he tightened his grasp upon my hand, and raised a forefinger threateningly before my eyes.

"Now, Jim, you tell me true; that ain't Flint's ship?" he asked.

At this I had a happy inspiration. I began to believe that I had found an lly, and I answered him at once. "It's not Flint's ship, and Flint is dead; but I'll tell you true, as you ask me there are some of Flint's hands aboard; worse luck for the rest of us."

"Not a man-with one-leg?" he gasped. "Silver?" I asked.

"Ah, Silver!" says he; "that were his "He's the cook; and the ringleader,

He was still holding me by the wrist, and at that he gave it a quiet wring.
"If you was sent by Long John," he said, "I'm as good as pork, and I know

I had made my mind up in a moment, and by way of answer told him the whole story of our voyage, and the pre-dicament in which we found ourselves. He heard me with the keenest interest, and when I had done he patted me on

"You're a good lad, Jim," he said; "and you're all in a clove hitch, ain't you? Well, you just put your trust in Ben Gunn-Ben Gunn's the man to do Would you think it likely, now, that your squire would prove a liberal-minded one in case of help—him being in a clove hitch, as you remark?"

I told him the squire was the most lib-"Ah, but you see," returned Ben Gunn, "I didn't mean giving me a gate to keep, and a suit of livery clothes, and such; that's not my mark, Jim. What I mean is, would be be likely to ome down to the toon of, say £ 1,000 out of money that's as good as a man's own already? "I am sure he would," said I. "As it was, all hands were to share."

"And a passage home?" he added, with a look of great shrewdness.

"Why," I cried, "the squire's a gentleman. And, besides, if we got rid of the others, we should want you to help work the vessel home."

"Ah," said be, "so you would." And he seemed very much relieved. "Now, I'll tell you what," he went I were in Flint's ablp when he buried the treasure; he and six along—six strong seamen. They was ashore night as week, and us standing off and in the old 'Walrus.' One fine day up went the signal, and here come Flint by himself in a little boat, and his head done up in a blue scarf. The sun was getting up, and mortal white he looked about the cut-water. But, there he was, you mind, and the six all dead —dead and buried. How had he done t was bettle, murder and sudden death, eastways—him against six. Billy lones was the mate; Long John, he was quartermaster; and they asked him where the treasure was. 'Ah,' says he, you can go ashore, if you like, and tay,' he mays; 'but as for the ship, she'll tent up for more, by thunder!' That's what he said.

fell, I was in another ship three is back, and we sighted this island.

a,' said I, 'here's Flint's treasure; hand and find it.' The captain was says they, 'here's a mucket,' they says, I and a spade, and pick-ax. You can stay here, and find Flint's money for yourself,' they says. "Well, Jim, three years have I been here, and not a bite of Christian diet from that day to this. But now, you look here; look at me. Do I look like a man before the mast? No, says you. Nor I weren't meither, I says." And with that he winked and pinched

"Just you mention them words to your squire, Jim"-he went on: "Nor he weren't, neither-that's the words Three years he were the man of this island, light and dark, fair and rain; and sometimes he would, maybe, think upon a prayer (says you), and sometimes he would, maybe, think of his old nother, so be as she's alive (you'll say); but the most part of Gunn's time (this is what you'll say)-the most part of

ter. And then you'll give him a nip, like And he pinched me again, in the most confidential manner.

his time was took up with another mat-

"Then," he continued-"then you'll up and you'll say this: Gunn is a good man (you'll say), and he puts a precious nind that-in a gen'leman born than in these gen'lemen of fortune, having been one hisself." "Well," I said, "I don't understand e word that you've been saying. But that's neither here nor there; for how am I to get on board?"

"Ah," said he, "that's the hitch for sure. Well, there's my boat that I made with my two hands. I keep her under the white rock. If the worst come to the worst, we might try that after dark. Hi!" he broke out, "what's that 2"

For just then, although the sun has till an hour or two to run, all the echoes of the island awoke and bellowed to the thunder of a cannon. "They have begun to fight!" I cried.

And I began to run toward the while close at my side the marcomed anchorage, my terrors all forgotten; man in his goatskins trotted easily and "Left, left," says he; "keep to you left hand, mate Jim! Under the trees with you! There's where I killed my first goat. They don't come down here now; they're all mastheaded on them nountings for the fear of Benjamin Gunn. Ah! and there's the cetemery -cemetery he must have meant. You see the mounds? I come here and pray, nows and thens, when I thought maybe a Sunday would b about doo. It weren't quite a chapel, but it seemed more solemn like; and then, says you, Ben Gunn was shorthanded-no chapling, nor so much as a Bible and a flag, you says,"

So he kept talking as I ran, neither expecting nor receiving any answer. The cannon-shot was followed, after considerable interval, by a volley of small arms. Another pause, and then, not held the Union Jack flutter in the air above a wood.

> PART IV. THE STOCKADE.

CHAPTER XVI.

It was about half-past one-three bells in the sea phrase-that the two ola." The captain, the squire and I were talking matters over in the cabin. Had there been a breath of wind, we should have fallen on the six mutineers who were left aboard with us, slipped our cable, and away to sea. But the wind was wanting; and to complete our helplessness, down came Hunter with the news that Jim Hawkins had slipped into a boat and was gone ashore with the rest. It had never occurred to us to doubt Jim Hawkins; but we were alarmed for his safety. With the men in the temper they were in, it seemed an even chance if we should see the lad again. Weranondeck. The pitch was bubbling in the seams: the nasty stench of the place turned me sick; if ever a man smelled fever and dysentery, it was in that abominable auchorage. The six coundrels were sitting grumbling under a sail in the forecastle; ashore we could see the gies made fast, and a man sitting in each, hard by where the river runs in. One of them was whistling "Lillibullero." Waiting was a strain; and it was decided that Hunter and I should go ashore with the jolly-boat, in quest of

The gigs had leaned to their right: but Hunter and I pulled straight in, in the direction of the stockade upon the chart. The two who were left guarding their boats seemed in a bustle at our appearance; "Lillibullero" stopped off, and I could see the pair discussing what they ought to bo. Had they gone and told Silver, all might have turned out differently; but they had their orders, I suppose, and decided to sit quietly where they were and bark back again to "Lillibullero." There was a slight bend in the const and I steered so as to put it between us; even before we landed we had thus lost sight of the gigs. I jumped out, and came as near running as I durst, with a big silk handkerchief under my hat for coolness' sake, and a brace of pistols ready primed for safety.

I had not gone 100 yards when I cam on the stockade. This was how it was: A spring of clear water rose almost at the top of a knoll. Well, on the knoll, and inclosing the spring, they had clapped a stou use, fit to hold two score people on a pinch, and loop-holed for mus-ketry on every side. All round this they had cleared a wide space, and then the thing was completed by a paling six feet high, without door or open ing, too strong to pull down without time and labor, and too open to shelter the besiegers. The people in the log house had them in every way; they stood quiet in shelter and shot the others like partridges. All they wanted was a good watch and food; for, short of a complete surprise, they might have held the place against a What particularly took my fancy was the spring. For, though we had a good enough place of it in the cabin of the "Hispaniola," with plenty of arms and ammunition, and things to eat, and excellent wines, there had been one thing overlooked-we had no water. I was thinking this over, when there came ringing over the island the cry of a man at the point of death. I was not new to violent death-I have served his royal highness the duke of Cumberland, and got a wound myself at ontenoy-but I know my pulse went dot and carry one. "Jim Hawkina is gone," was my first thought.

It is something to have been an old soldier, but more still to have been a doctor. There is no time to dilly-dally in our work. And so now I made up my mind instantly, and with no time lost returned to the abore and jumped on loard the jolly-boat.

good oar. We made the water fly: and the boat was soon alongside, and I aboard the schooner. I found them all shaken, as was nat ural. The squire was sitting down, as white as a sheet, thinking of the harm he had led us to, the good soul; and one of the six forecastle bands was little better.

"There's a man," said Capt, Smollett nodding toward him, "new to this work. He came nigh-hand fainting Coctor, when he heard the ery. At other touch of the rudder and that may would join us."

I told my plan to the captain, and is tween us we settled on the details of it accomplishment.

We put old Redruth in the galler between the cabin and the forecastle with three or four loaded muskets are a mattress for protection. Hunter brought the boat round under the stern port, and Joyce and I set to work loading her with powder tins, muskets. bags of bisenits, kegs of pork, a cast. of cognae and my invaluable medicine chest. In the meantime the squire and the captain stayed on deck, and the latter sight more confidence-a precious sight, hailed the cockswain, who was the principal man on board. "Mr. Hands," he said "here are tw of us with a brace of pistols each. It any one of you six make a signal of any description, that man's dead."

They were a good deal taken aback and after a little consultation, one and all tumbled down the fore companion. thinking, no doubt, to take us on the rear. But when they saw Redruth waiting for them in the sparred gallery, they went about ship at once, and a head popped out on deck.

"Down, dog!" cries the captain And the head popped back again; and we heard no more, for the time, of these six very faint-hearted seamen. By this time, tumbling things in they came we had the jolty-heat loaded as much as we dared. Jovee and I got out through the stern port and we made for shore again as fast as our oars could take us. This second trip fairly aroused the watchers along the shore. "Lillibullero" was dropped again, and just before we lost sight of them behind the little point one of them' whipped ashore and disappeared. I had half mind to change my plans and destroy their boats, but I feared that Silver and the others might be close at hand, and all might very well be lost by try ing for too much. We had soon touched land in the some place before we set the provision in the block-house. All three made the first journey, beavily laden, and tossed our stores over the palisade. Then, leaving Joyce to guard themone man, to be sure, but with half a dozen muskets-Hunter and I returned to the jolly-boat, and loaded ourselves once more. So we proceeded without same number of extremities. Volcapausing to take breath, till the whole cargo was bestowed, when the two serv-really was. They had the advantage of numbers, of course, but we had the advantage of arms. Not one of the men ashare had a musket and before they could get within range for pistol-shooting, we flattered ourselves we could be able to give a good account of a half dozen at least. The squire was waiting for me at the stern window, all his faintness gone m him He cancht the mainter and made it fast, and we fell to loading the boat for our very lives. Pork, powder and biscuit was the cargo, with only a musket and cutlass apiece for squire and me and Redruth and the captain. The rest of the arms and powder were he alse was the dropped overboard in two fathoms and a half of water, so that we could see the bright steel shining far below us him. in the sun, on the clear, sandy bottom. to ebb, and the ship was swinging around to her anchor. Voices were two gigs; and though this reassured us

Redruth retreated from his place in the galiery and dropped into the boat, which we had brought round to the ship's counter, to be handler for Capt.

"Now, men," said he, "do you hear There was no answer from the fore-

"It's to you, Abraham Gray-it's to you I am speaking."

Still no reply. "Gray," resumed Mr. Smollett, a little uder, "I am leaving this ship, and I order you to follow your captain. I know you are a good man at bottom, and I dare say not one of the lot of you's as bad as he makes out. I have my watch here in my hand; I give you seconds to join me in." There was a pause. "Come, my fine fellow," continued the captain, "don't hang so long in stays. I'm risking my life, and the lives of these good gentlemen, every There was a sudden scuffle, a sound of blows, and out burst Abraham Gray with a knife cut on the side of the cheek, and came running to the captain, like dog to the whistle. "I'm with you, sir," said he And the next moment he and the cap-tain had dropped aboard of us, and we had shoved off and given way.

We were clear out of the ship, but not yet ashore in our stockade.

[TO BE CONTINUED.]

The City of the Little Monk. The city of Munich is called Muenchen in German. Before it was Muenchen it was "Moenchen," the diminutive for "moench," the German word for "monk," so that the name of the city signifies "little monk." The name was received 700 years ago. In the middle of the twelth century a number of monks flying from Hungary established a cloister and a colony on the site of the old town, and travelers used to speak of the place as "Bei den Moenchen," later simply Moenchen, now Muenchen Whether the Hungarian recluse was smaller than his Bavarian conferces or whether it was simply an expression of affection has not been ascertained .-

She Saved Him. They were about to string him up to n oak limb when a woman rushed forward and threw her arms around him

Philadelphia Press.

"Stop!" she cried. "Ef you won't lynch him I'll marry him and leave the state on his honeymoon!" "Take him!" said the leader, "ar give me a dollar an' a half for the license!"-Atlanta Constitution.

Progress.

Mrs. Weston-I was reminded of my courtship days to-day by something John said to me. Mrs. Easton-S. ment, I suppose?
"Yes; he said I was a great goose He used to call me his little birdle. Ye Society Would Go to Pieces Without the Common Folk.

The Bursley of the World is Borne by Them-A Few Great Boctors Could Not Core the Nek-Sermon by Rev. Dr. Taimage, D. D.

fame. The text is I. Chron. xx., 6, 7; ix on each hand, and six on each foot; ad he also was the son of a giant.

Malformation photographed, and for were many of them in olden times. Goliath was, according to the Bible, cleven feet four and a balf inches high, Or, if you doubt this, the famous Pliny declares that at Crete, by an earthquake, a monument was broken open, iscovering the remains of a giant 46 cubits long, or 69 feet high. So, whether you take sacred or profane history, you must come to the con-cases of human altitude monstrons and spealling. in my text. He was not only of Alhad a son endowed with the madness to return to court." tius, the poet, had six fingers on each loaded persons ought to be pitied, for hand. Maupertuis, in his celebrated their worriment are real, and their in-abundance. But this giant of the text | vexation let him drop a *few of them.

Behold how superfluities are a hind- obliged to them. By this time the tide was beginning rance rather than a help! In all the battle at Gath that day there was not heard hallooing in the direction of the ary foot and ordinary stature that said to Mr. Lester: "I do not feel quite for Joyce and Hunter, who were well to curiosity of my text. A dwarf on the Working under one of our patents we the eastward, it warned our party to right side is stronger than a giant on have a monopoly which seems to me are ordinary people. Count the fingers of their right hand, and they have just five-no more and no less tions that get a legacy from men One Dr. Duff among missionaries, but who, during their life, were as stingy 3,000 missionaries that would tell you as death, but who in their last will and they have only one common endow- testament bestowed money on horment. One Florence Nightingale to pitals and missionary secieties; but for nurse the sick in conspicuous places, such testators I have no respect. They but 10,000 women who are just as good would have taken every cent of it nurses, though never heard of. "Swamp Angel" was a big gun that up half of Heaven and let it out at during the civil war made a big noise, ruinous rent, or loaned the money to but muskets of ordinary caliber and celestial citizens at 2 per cent. a shells of ordirar; heft did the month, and got a corner on harps one day to experiment with the palling suffering and want, and made foreign navies. The gunner touches post future" tense; they are going to it off, and it explodes, and leaves do them. The probability is that if go home hourse from angry discussion November, the next day the people, whether this sermon reach your ear with the silent ballots, will settle or your eyes, let the fall of an apple blossom.

everything, and settle it right, 1,000. If you are prostrated with anxieties 000 of the white slips of paper they drop making about as much noise as Clear tack in the country to-day there are mothers in plain apron and than by drinking gallons of bad-tastshoes fashioned on a rough last by a shoemaker at the end of the lane, rocking babies that are to be the Martin | the Bible ten per cent. of all your in-Luthers, and the Faradays, and the Edisons, and the Bismarcks, and the Gladstones and the Washingtons, and floor at night you shall have eight the George Whitefields of the future. hours' sleep, without the help of bro-The longer I live the more I like common folks. They do the world's tite you will hardly be able to wait for work, bearing the world's burdens, weeping the world's sympathies, carrying the world's consolation. Among lawyers we see rise up a Rufus Chante, or a William Wirt, or a Samuel L. Southard, but society would go to pieces to-morrow if there were not consands of common lawyers to see that men and women get their rights. A Valentine Mott or a William Par ker rises up eminent in the medical sweep would pneumonia and diph-theria and scarlet fever have in the doctor-! The old physician in his gig, driving on horseback, his medicines in the saddle bags, arriving on the ninth day of the fever, and coming in to take the family, pale with anxiety, and looking on and waiting for his deeision in regard to the patient and earing him say: "Thank God, I have mastered the cas; he is getting well! nee of this fallen giant of my text, excites in me an admiration quite and in this post-morten examination

By good fortune Hunter pulled . THE ORDINARY PEOPLE, equal to the mention of the names of of him, let us learn how much better

From a passage of Scripture that ply of those whom we leave behind us tian scientist can have any appreciaobably no other elergyman ever after we have departed this life, is im- tion of what divine masterpieces they wached from they Dr. Talmage, in portant, for we have the best author- are. his discourse, sets forth a truth very lity for saying, "Il that provideth not. Sir Charles Bell was so impresse infidel;" but the large and fabulous Bridgewater gave $40,000 for essays on "A man of great stature, whose sums for which many struggle, if ob- the wisdom and goodness of God, and fingers and toes were four and twenty. tained, would be a hindrance rather eight books were written. Sir Charles tion an advantage. The anxieties and annoyances of dom and goodness of God as displayed But when he defied Israel, Jonathan, those whose estates have become pies in the human hand. The 27 bones in the son of Shimea, David's son, slew there can only be told by those who the hand and wrist, with cartilages possess them. It will be a good thing and ligaments and phalanges of the when, through your industry and pros- lingers all made just ready to knit, to what reason? Did not this passage perity, you can own the house in sew, to build up, to pull down, lip in by mistake into the sacred which you live. But suppose you own weave, to write, to plow, to pound, to scriptures, as sometimes a paragraph 50 houses, and you have all those rents wheel, to battle, to give friendly saluatterly obnoxious to the editor gets to collect, and all those tenants to tation. The tips of the fingers are s nto his newspaper during his absence? please. Suppose you have branched many telegraph offices by reason of Is not this Scriptural errata? No, no! out in business successes until in al- their sensitiveness to touch. as certainly intended to be put in the you rush upstairs to look out of hand. The hands are not dumb, but lible as the verse, "In the beginning the window to see if it is any of often speak as distinctly as the lips

there is nothing haphazard about the most every direction you have invest-Bible. This passage of Scripture was ments. The fire bells rings at night. God created the heavens and the your mills. Endemie of crime With our hands we invite, we recel, we earth," or, "God so loved the world comes, and there are embrzzie- invoke, we entreat, we wring them in extinct, I am glad to say. There is no under wing. After a certain stage of to the anxiety on your brow now that you have won your $300,000,000.

The trouble with such a one is that he is spread out like the unfortunate one in my text. You have more fingers | clusion that there were in those times and toes than you know what to do with. Twenty were useful 21 is a bindering superfluity. Discaeli says David had smashed the skull of one that a king of Poland abdicated his of these giants, but there were other throne and joined the people, and begiants that the Davidean wars had not came a porter to carry burdens. And vet subdued, and one of them stands some one asked him why he did so and he answered: "Upon my honor, genpine stature, but had a surplus of dig- tiemen, the load which I cast off was other. its. To the ordinary fingers was an- by far heavier than the one you see me nexed an additional finger, and the carry. The weightiest is but a straw foot had also an additional addendum, when compared to that weight under.

He had 24 terminations to hands and which I labored. I have slept more in feet, where others had 20. It was not four nights than I have during all my just entering business, and discourthe only instance of the kind, reign, I begin to live and to be a ling warrior, had dispatched one giant, the nephew of David slays this monster of my text, and there he lies after the battle in Gath, a dead giant. His stature did not save him, and his superfluous appendices of hand and foot if id not save him. The probability was hait in the battle his sixth finger with more care than they did not save him. The probability was hait in the battle his sixth finger with more care than they did not save him. The probability was hait in the battle his sixth finger on nis hand made him clumsy in the use of his waspon, and his sixth toe crippled his gait. Behold the prostrate of them by charities bleed themselves the month of them by charities bleed themselves than the value of this financial obesity and more tary and toes were four and try v. six on each hand and and hand and hand and hand the complex of the month of the case of the same of the hindering superfluity till death when he defied is and a factor of the text. The complex of the month of the case of the month of the case of the same of the hindering superfluity till death when he defied is and a factor of the case of the case son of Shimen, David , brother, slew give some of it to the Lord, expecting no doubt, that He will feel very much Thank God that once in a while we have a Peter Cooper, who, owning an a man with ordinary hand and ordin- interest in the iron works at Trenton. was not better off than this physical easy about the amount we are making. the wrong side, and all the body and something wrong. Everybody has to mind and estate and opportunity that come to us for it, and we are making you can not use for God and the bet- money too fast." So they reduced the terment of the world is a sixth finger | price, and this while our philanthropist and a sixth toe, and a terrible hind- was building Cooper Institute, which The most of the good done in mothers a hundred institutes of kindthe world and the most of those who ness and mercy all over the land But win the battles for the right, the world had to wait 5.800 years for the Peter Cooper. I am glad for the benevolent institu-The with them if they could, and bought execution. President Tyler and his and trumpets. They lived in this world cabinet go down the Potomae 50 or 60 years in the presence of an-'Peacemaker," a great iron gun no efforts for their relief. The charithat was to affright with its thunder ties of such people are in the "Pauloeabinet ministers dead on the deck, such a one in his last will by a donalown our coasts were cannon of or- atone for his lifetime of close-fisteddinary bore, able to be the defense of ness, the heirs-at-law will try to the nation, and ready at the first break the will by proving that the ouch to waken to duty. The curse of old man was senile or eazy, and the the world is big gues. After the pol- expense of the litigation will about iticians, who have made all the noise. leave in the lawyer's hands what was meant for the Bible Society. O, ye on the evening of the first Monday in overweighty, successful business men about keeping or investing these tremendous fortunes, I can tell you how you can do more to get your health back and your spirits raised ing water at Saratoga, Homburg or Give to God, humanity and come, and it will make a new man of you, and from restless walking of the mide of potassium, and from no appeyour regular meals, and your wan cheek will fill up, and when you die the blessings of those whom but for you would have perished will bloom all over you grave. Perhaps some of you will take this dvice, but the most of you will not. And you will try to cure your swollen hand by cetting on it more fingers. and your rheumatic foot by getting on it more toes, and there will be sigh of profession; but what an unlimited relief when you are gone out of the the minister recites the words: "Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord," persons who have keen appreciation f the Indicrous will hardly be able to up the lane of the farmhouse or riding keep their faces straight. But whether in that direction my words do good or not, I am anxious that all who have only ordinary equipment be thankhold of the pulse of the patient, while ful for what they have and rightly mploy it. I think you all have fle--nough. Do not long for hindering superfluitles. Standing in the pres-

the great metropolitan doctors of the off we are with just the usual hand past or the lilustrious living men of the usual foot. You have thanked God he present.

Yet what do we see in all departs you nev r thanked Him for those im-People not satisfied with ors plements of work and locomotion, that linary spheres of work and ordinary no one but the Infinite and Omnipotent duties. Instead of seeing what they God could have ever planned or made an do with a hand of five fingers, they the hand and the foot. Only the solwant six. Instead of usual endows dier or that mechanic who in a battle ment of 20 minimal and pedal a idenda. or through machinery has lost them they want 24. A certain amount of knows anything adequately about appropriate for those who have un-Bell wrote his entire book on the wis The bridges, the tunnels, the cities of the whole earth are the victories of the

that He gave His only begotten Son." | ments and absconding in all direct grief, we clap them in joy, we spread And I select it for my text to-day be- tions, and you wonder whether any of them abroad in benediction. The malcause it is charged with practical and your bookkeepers will prove recreant. formation of the giant's hand in tremendous meaning. By the people A punic strikes the financial world, and the text glorifies the usual hand. of God the Philistines had been con- you are like a hen under a sky full of fashioned of God more exquisitely and quered, with the exception of a few hawks, and trying with anxious cinck wondrously than any human mechangiants. The race of giants is mostly to get your overgrown chickens safely ism that was ever contrived. I charge you to use it for God and the lifting of use for giants now except to enlarge success has been reached you have to the world out of its moral predienthe income of museums. But there trust so many important things to ment. Employ it in the sublime work others that you are ant to become the of Gospel hand-shaking. You car prey of others, and you are swindled see the hand is just made for that, and defrauded, and the anxiety you Four fingers just set right to touch had on your brow when you were your neighbor's hand on one side, and carning your first $1,000 is not equal your thumb set so as to clinch it on joints and muscles and cartilages and ligaments the voice of nature joins with the voice of Go! cammanding you to shake hands. The custom is as old as the Bible, anyhow. Jehn said to Jehonadad: "Is thine heart right as my heart is with thine heart? If it be, give me thine hand." When hands join in Christian salutation a Gospel electricity thrills across the palm from heart to heart, and from the

With the timid and for their encouragement, shake hands. With the troubled in warm-hearted sympathy, shake hands. With the young man aged at the small sales and the large Tavernier, the learned writer, king myself. Elect whom you choose, expenses, shake hands. With the says that the emperor of Java As for me, I am so well it would be child who is new from God and started on unending journey, for "Well," says somebody "such over-loyded persons ought to be pitied, for supply of strength, and who can hardly reach no to you now because ants took up their position in the letters, speaks of two families somnia and their nervous prostration you are so much taller, shake hands, block-house, and I, with all my power, near Berlin similarly equipped are genuine." I reply that they could Aeross cradles and dying beds and can afford to forgive, shake hands, is in battle, and as David, the strip- If his estate is so great he can not ling warrior, had dispatched one giant, manage it without getting nervous people come in, and at the door of

THE finest shops in a Chinese city are those devoted to the sale of cof

WATER pines are now often made o glass and covered with asphalt, with righly satisfactory results. enp of coffee made in western Europe

Lorus XIV, of France, drank the first offee was then worth £) 16s, a pound THERE are 1,155 glaciers or ice rivers, in the Alps, of which 249 have a length of more than four and three-quarter voice in Germany and will make her SUNSTROKE, or, rather, heatstroke, can occur even in winter in a close, the control of the summer girl isn't built that yay.— Chicago Daily News. debut as a singer next year.

darkened room where the temperature is for a long time above the normal. SUFFERERS from neuralgia are warnby a medical writer not to drink tea, but to partake of coffee into which the juice of a lemon has been squeezed. A CUMOSITY recently exhibited at Stockholm was a section four feet in diameter from a pine tree which grew 60 to 70 miles north of the Aretic Ar Welbeck, in Germany, a decree has been proclaimed that a license to marry will not be granted to any individual who has been in the habit of getting drunk. THE largest steamship ever built in England is now in process of construction. It is to have a total length while at that time all up and tion to benevolent societies tries to of 564 feet, a 64 feet beam and a depth of 42 feet, its total tonnage to be 13,-Time was when master shipbuilders insisted that ships of this size were impracticable, that they ly. This experience was based upon the experience of the Great Eastern. But men know more about ship-building now than they did when the Great Eastern was launched. REV. ANSON DODGE (episcopal), of St. Simon's island, Brunswick, Ga., who has just died, endowned a church in Allahabad, India, with $40,000 in memory of his first wife, who died there fifteen years ago. He gave $40 .-000 to the diocese of Georgia, southern district: $40,000 to the northern and western districts, and $20,000 to the eastern district. He built twelve churches and chapels and many schoolhouses in the southern district, and established and endowed an orphaus' home on St. Simon's island.

PROP. RE, of Palermo, arrives at the onclusion that the Roentgen rays consist of electric waves of infinite wave length, or practically so. This explains the great diffusivity, the absence of interference phenomena, the luminescence, the passage round obabscence of refraction, the photo-graphic action. The theory admits the possibility of polarization, but it is weak in regard to the difference be tween diffeent Roentgen radiations in respect of their penetrative powers. THE Germans have been making head agarast their English competitors in the Uruguayan trade. It is claimed the German goods are not as durable as those of English manufacture, that they are distinctly of a poorer quality, but the Germans have had the sagacity to study the demands of the market, have found out what the Uruguayans want. The same authority furnished the information that the American manufacturers of agricultural imple ments are rapidly making headway in Uruguay in spite of English and

SNUBBED IN PARIS.

Stake Are Americans Tolerated.

Prominent commercial Frenchmen. who appreciate the damage that will be caused to the French trade by hostility to the United States, disown and de nonnee the attacks made upon Amer isa by the Chauvinist pro-Spanish press They wish it to be known that Americans visiting France run so risk of suf fering personal indignities.

John K. Goudy, the American consul general at Paris, is overwhelmed with correspondence on the subject and willingly confirms the statement that Nevertheless it is a fact that when trade interests do not exist the hostility to the Yankees is strong among high and low.

Society people omit the names of prominent American residents and visitors from their invitation lists and greet them with noticeable chilliness when they encounter them. Meanwhile the spring trade is depressed and money spending Americans are conspicuously absent.

FIELD SERVICE TELEPHONE.

Experiment with Kites by William Eddy Which Demonstrates Their

Cillity in War Times. William A. Eddy made a kite telehone experiment at Bayonne, N. J. With Mr. Eddy were W. W. Hotchkin. Dr. W. H. Mttebell and Henry L. Allen. Two kites, each seven feet in diameter, and one four feet in diameter, were sent up in tandem, plano wire being used. Under the kites was placed an American flag seven by four feet in size, which was kept flying all the afterpoon. To the piano wire was made fast a thin copper wire, which, as the kites ascended, trailed over trees, houses and barns toward the Kill von Kull. The end of the wire finally was allowed to rest on the Jersey shore. Dr. Mitchell attached to it a telephone similar to those used in the field. A similar instrument was attached to the kite wire at Mr. Eddy's ouse, a mile away. Conversation was then carried on. The communication was perfect. Mr. Eddy says this experiment demonstrates that kites can be used to carry wires for field telephoning

The Growth of Socialism. The Growth of Socialism.

It is argued by deep thinkers that the growth of socialism is due to the large standing armies of the world, in which men are often made to enlist against their will, and thus become discontented with existing conditions. The growth of a stronger race of people is due to the large sale of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, which is the best medicine for costiveness, dyspepsia, fever, ague and all nervous troubles. Try one bottle.

When It's Really Solema. It's a very solemn thing," she said, hen a woman intrusts a man with her

"It's a mighty sight more solemn when makes him think she has intrusted them

Tickets.

A clause should be inserted in the mar-riage service asking the man to promise that he will not make it necessary for his wife to open a boarding house.—Atchison Globe.

"Why did the commanding officer order a retreat just as the advance began?" "He decided that there was no quorum of the enemy present."—Town Topics.

"There goes another camp victim." "Why, he isn't a soldier." "No, but he camped out this summer and got engaged to a giri." -N. O. Times-Democrat.

Miss Hamilton Griffin, a half-sister of Mary Anderson, is cultivating her for Consumption.—Mrs. Frank Mobbs, 215 W. 22d St., New York, Oct. 29, 1894.

Hall's Catarrh Cure Is taken Internally. Price 75c.

A great deal of ability is necessary to properly manage a $10 b.l.—Atchison Globe.

CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP CO. SAN FRANCISCO, Cal. NEW YORK, N. Y.

Good Blood Makes Health

And Hood's Sarsaparilla makes good blood. That is why it cures so many diseases and makes so many people feel better than ever before. If you don't feel well, are half sick, tired, worn out, you may be made well by

Hood's Sarsaparilla

America's Greatest Medicine. Hood's Pille cure all Liver Ills. 25 cents.

Perish the Thought "John," said a Topeka wife to her hus-band, "I will quit drinking tea and save the war tax if you will do the same with beer." "Woman," responded John, with cold se-verity, "do you think it is the part of pat-riotism to abandon teats." riotism to abandon your country in its time of peril?"-Kansas City Journal.

Good for the Doctor. Invalid-I would rather be dead than as am! Attending Physician Ah, madam, you hould live and er-let live. Detroit Jour-

The Bargain Instinct. "Are you going to buy any $20 bonds?" said Mr. Snages to his wife. "Not until they are marked down to $19.88," replied Mrs. Snages.—Pittsburgh Chronicle Telegraph.

What Was Going On. Mother—What was going on in the parlor last night, Madge?
Madge (shyly)—Only the engagement ring, ma.—Stray Stories.

Heroic Honors.-"Evelyn," said her fa-Heroic Honors.—"Evelyn," said her fa-ther, "what particular feat of bravery did that young man who called on you last night perform during the war?" "None, father. He stayed as home at my request. But why do you ask?" "Oh, judging from the way you kissed him I thought perhaps he had di-rected the movements of Dewey and Schley during the equilict."—Philade phia North American.

Bennett-"There is more talk about of ceding the Canaries." Nearpass - "2 France?" Bennett - "No; to a man to whom she owes a coal bill." - Puck.

But he did not reply. He gasped for breath, and the hostess, appearing at that moment on the scene, deflected the line of conversation.—N. Y. Sun.

A man should always be supplied with just enough work and trouble to keep his mind off the pimple on his nose.—Atchison Globe.

A man's meaning is the same during court-ship and after marriage, but it is expressed in different language.—Chicago Daily News. Mrs. Banks—"Why did you let your cook go?" Mrs. Brooks—"She said one of us would have to leave."—Truth.

There's something crooked about the busi ness of a corkserew manufacturer.—Chicago Daily News. "Did he tell his love by word of mouth?" Well, not exactly by word." - Town Topics

Another pugilist gone wrong—he's dead.— Buffalo Times. SYRUPOF FIGS

THE EXCELLENCE OF SYRUP OF FIGS is due not only to the originality and simplicity of the combination, but also to the care and skill with which it is manufactured by scientific proce known to the CALIFORNIA FIG STRUP Co. only, and we wish to impress upon all the importance of purchasing the genuine Syrup of Figs is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only, a knowledge of that fact will assist one in avoiding the worthless imitations manufactured by other parties. The high standing of the CALI-FORNIA Fig Sympe Co. with the medical profession, and the satisfaction which the genuine Syrup of Figs has given to millions of families, makes the name of the Company a guaranty nauscate. In order to get its ben effects, please remember the the Company - of the excellence of its remedy. It is far in advance of all other laxatives.

bowels without irritating or weakening them, and it does not gripe no

Satisfies that dry taste in the mouth. BattleAx Remember the name when you buy again.